Preface

The primary goal of the current educational system is to mould a productive citizen and a caring family member who is equipped with knowledge and skills. The main responsibility of the school is to identify and recognize children's talents, as well as to sharpen their skills to meet the needs of the nation and the world.

Our Alma Mater is constantly guiding and assisting children who are creative. This project has been an ongoing process at our school for many years, particularly in terms of writing books. Many skilled and enthusiastic young writers participated in this exercise for years, producing novice writers to field of literature. We regard this as a great victory and a national need at this hour.

To continue this effort, we have adopted digital technologies and an e-book project this year. I am confident that this unique event provided youngsters with valuable experience and challenges that will benefit them in the future.

The Ministry of Education has hailed the project as an important step toward motivating young authors in schools. As principal of Mahamaya Girls' College, I am grateful to all of the students throughout the country who contributed to this endeavor. I commend and applaud all of the young authors of these books for their perseverance and devotion in this difficult task.

I would like to thank our school management committee, employees, parents, for my students, administrators, and teachers from other schools who encouraged students to take part in this worthwhile effort.

Today is a big day for the little animal fairies.

The eldest fairy is Bluebell.
She is blue in colour.

She announced to all the little fairies, that it is time for them to find an animal for them.

The little fairies were so exited.

The little fairies went off to find an animal.

Snow drop is a little white colour fairy.

She wanted to find an animal who is small, cute and white. So she quickly flew to winter mountain.

There she found a polar bear cub and they were a perfect match.

Meanwhile, Twinkle the little gold colour fairy wanted to find someone shiny.

So she flew to crystal river.

There she saw the most beautiful and shiny butterfly she has ever seen.

She gave a little flower to the butterfly and the butterfly loved it lot.

They were also a perfect match.

All the fairies found an animal, but the youngest fairy Blossom a pink colour fairy couldn't find any animal.
She flew sadly to the
enchanted forest.
There she found a little swallow.

She likes birds a lot.
So she flew and played with the swallow.

The swallow too loved playing with Blossom. Blossom finally found the perfect animal for her and she was very happy too.

The End

Afterword

As modern technology permeates the social and economic arenas, students tend to distance themselves from the creative process, relying more and more on technological tools. To reduce this risk and help aspiring young writers produce their own books, I sought and presented a research proposal to the Ministry of Education in 2014. It was a fantastic opportunity for children to showcase their enthusiasm and knowledge. The students of Mahamaya Girls' College achieved a record for the most books written, paving the way for a new level of innovation.

The e-book project will enable the students to reach international readers, and I am confident that they have gained new experiences and challenges that will enable them to face the future with resolve.

I wish all of the young writers the best of luck in their future endeavors
