

THE LOST MRS.SANTA

BY VEENU WEERAKOON

To my ever-loving mom, dad and all my dear teachers who gave me courage and support.

ISBN Number

ISBN 978-624-206-129-2

▪ Introduction

This is an imaginary story about a little Santa Claus family. The main character of the story is Mrs. Santa. This book is specially written for all the kids under fifteen in age.

• Contents

Chapter 1: Mrs. Santa's busy week

Chapter 2: Candy cane mystery

Chapter 3: Lost in the jungle

Chapter 4: The elves save

Chapter 5: The consideration of virtue

Chapter 1: Mrs. Santa's busy week

Once upon a time there was a lovely Santa Claus family including Mrs. Santa and Santa Claus who lived in Santa Claus's big workshop in the North Pole. They didn't have any children, but they treated their elves like their own children, even though they were supposed to be their workers. It was their busy week because it's almost Christmas. Santa Claus and everyone was packing gifts and making candy. They were running here and there the whole day, at last finally Santa Claus had enough and had a great excuse and went to get ready the reindeers and the sleigh, while Mrs. Santa and the elves were working very hard the whole time. Mrs. Santa was wrapping some toys and afterwards she planned to make some candy canes. The elves were also packing some gifts and toys working very hard with the help of some machines, while the other elves went with Santa Claus. Since it's Christmas season the relatives of the Claus family came to visit them all. The nieces, cousins, sisters and all the other Clauses came to visit Mrs. Santa and the others. The elves gave them sweets and treated them well, but Santa Claus accidentally had lost one of his reindeers and he got very late to come back. But Mrs. Santa wasn't mad at all because the elves and the relatives didn't let her feel lonely. Afterwards all the relatives left back to the South Pole and Mrs. Claus and the elves began their work again. And Santa came back in a rush with his lost rein dears and the elves that went with him.

Later, Santa send some elves to bring the naughty list and the nice list, and all of them got together and searched who has been naughty and nice this year. Santa also received lots of request lists from the children; it was a very busy week of all time. Most of the children requested toys, bikes and sweets, but Santa only agreed to send black coal to the naughty kids. They didn't even have enough time to eat, so they kept eating the sweets from the left overs of the gifts after packing. Mrs. Santa and the elves almost caught a sweet tooth from eating all of those sweets .Santa Claus didn't even have a time to drink a hot chocolate because he was very busy creating toys from his own. And since it's Christmas season it's very cold even though Santa has a long white beard and a very fluffy suit to keep him from getting cold and ill. Even with the help of the machines and the help of the elves they couldn't finish packing many gifts by a day. Santa even prepared some doggy treats for the sweet dogs in the street. But Santa worked hard and stayed patient because he knew that he's going to get a lot of delicious milk and cookies from the houses he is going to visit.

Chapter 2: The candy cane mystery

From all the candy Santa has packed the main sweet is candy cane and job to make candy canes in Santa's workshop is handled by Mrs. Santa. In Christmas candy canes are used a lot, some hang them in Christmas trees and mostly there used to eat in the whole Christmas season. And one day when Mrs. Santa was going to make some candy cane she noticed that the ingredients to make the candy canes and the candy canes she made the day before was gone missing. Mrs. Santa asked everyone in the workshop, the elves and even she asked Santa Claus if any of them knew what happened. And everyone, they didn't have clue about what happened to all the ingredients and the candy canes. Mrs. Santa searched everywhere in the workshop, and she didn't find one single clue anywhere. She was sad about what happened to her hard work. The elves saw the disappointed face of Mrs. Santa and they tried to Her cheer her up by cleaning the kitchen which was another job of her. That didn't cheer her up that much, but she was very grateful for what the elves did.

She forgotten it and made her mind to make the candy canes again. Then she remembered that the ingredients had been lost as well. If you want to make the perfect minty and sweet Candy Canes, you must find the perfect ingredients. The perfect ingredients are a in a big cave made of shiny ice in the middle of the North Pole jungle.

It's so hard to find the perfect ingredients in the jungle that you must follow a map to find them. Lots of citizens in the North Pole tried to get those ingredients but none of them couldn't because there's a story that there was a monster being selfish to give the perfect ingredients. Most of them believed that this was a stupid myth, but most consider it being true. Last time Santa Claus brought the ingredients by defeating the monster but now Santa Claus is old, weak and he's very busy nowadays. Unluckily Mrs. Santa didn't know about this monster. She tried to tell the elves to help her because she was also a bit old and she couldn't handle it by herself, but the elves were too busy to even listen. Mrs. Santa was very disappointed, but she believed in herself and made her mind to go to the forest and get the perfect ingredients to make the delicious sweets. She took her basket and the map she found from Santa's room in the workshop and went without being furious inside the jungle.

Chapter 3: Lost in the jungle

Mrs. Santa went inside the jungle and so far, she didn't find anything scary and dangerous. She kept on going and the deeper you go in the jungle the more it gets darker and scarier. Mrs. Santa was very smart, and she thought that she might get lost and dropped some night glowing mushrooms the way she was going. She kept going but she didn't find the cave she was looking for, but just then she heard a big forest animal howling like a bear. But still she had a brave heart, so she ignored it and just kept going. It was getting darker and darker, but she didn't find one single clue or a shade. She thought Santa and the elves might be looking for her because it's getting dark, but she was wrong anyone didn't even care that she was gone because they were working all day and didn't have time to look about her. It was night time and it was very dark, scary and Mrs. Santa was shivering in cold. Then she felt negative and said to herself "I can't do this" and tried to go back home to the workshop, but it was too dark to even see the path. She tried to find the mushrooms she dropped earlier but she couldn't even think of finding them because it started raining very hard. Mrs. Santa was very frightened because she had been lost in the jungle with scariest myths. She tried her best to sleep through the night under a tree hoping for help the next day. It was the morning and as usual she started going through the forest, she finally found the cave. Then she went in the cave without being worried about the howling noises.

Chapter 4: The elves save

Usually, Mrs. Santa is the one who make tea for Santa and the elves in the whole workshop every morning. No one got tea this morning, which was very strange to the elves, but Santa Claus didn't even notice because he was in a long sleep after working all night. The elves remembered that Mrs. Santa used to make tea and they haven't seen for past two days. They were worried and searched everywhere around the workshop but still didn't find Mrs. Santa. Then one Elf remembered that Mrs. Santa tried to tell them that she's going to the jungle to get the candy cane ingredients. Finally, they were calm until they remembered that the ingredients are in the big cave and inside the cave there's that monster who is their enemy. The elves tried to tell Santa, but he was in such a deep sleep he didn't hear it. The elves encouraged themselves and went inside the jungle. They were going inside the jungle when they found the mushrooms Mrs. Santa dropped. They already had been in this forest, so they found the cave in a few minutes. But they were too late Mrs. Santa has already gone inside the cave. Since it was a crystal cave, they saw Mrs. Santa's footsteps and followed them. The elves saw Mrs. Santa being captured by the monster. He wasn't more of a monster he was a yeti. The elves tried to save Mrs. Santa by begging and without getting in a fight, but the yeti wanted something else. All it wanted was a Christmas gift. Last time when Santa came the yeti tried to tell him about what he wanted without fighting, but no one listened. After hearing this the elves rushed to the workshop and brought some sweets and gifts. The yeti was super happy and gave them the ingredients and Mrs. Santa back. They went back to the workshop safe. When they came back Santa was awake, and Santa asked, "Where you all been". Mrs. Santa told the whole story including the brave save of the Elves. Santa was very sorry to Mrs. Santa for not giving attention to her and he was so pleased to the Elves.

Chapter 5: The consiation of virtue

They both decided to have a lovely christmasfeest just for the Elves. Mrs. Santa and Santa worked together and made the candy canes and finished packing the gifts. They both decorated the workshop and made delicious Christmas food for the whole workshop. Everyone ate and had so much fun and the elves were so thankful for Mrs. Santa and Santa. For the last years of Christmas the elves didn't get one single gift even though they lived with Santa. But this time Santa gave gifts for all the elves and Mrs. Santa. Some got gingerbread men, and some got Christmas mugs, hats and a lot more. Finally, it was Christmas eve and all the children, and everyone prepared milk and cookies and were so excited. This was the night Santa has been waiting for. From all those years of Santa and the elves serving gifts Mrs. Santa has never ever served gifts to the children having fun eating milk and cookies and climbing on roofs. So, this time as a difference Santa decided to invite Mrs. Santa to give gifts as well. Mrs. Santa was very happy and said yes. Later that night the children all around the world decorated their homes beautifully and prepared everything. Santa took his slay with rein Deers grabbed the gifts with Mrs. Santa and the elves saying, "Ho HoHo Merry Christmas everybody". And if they went into the sky making this a happy ending. May you all have a delightful Christmas.

The End!

After words

I wrote this e-book for the purpose of presenting the stories of children of Mahamaya Girl's College with the aim of presenting them with modern technology. This is my first e-book writing experience and I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to all the teachers and my parents who have given me knowledge and to all those who have supported me in any way.