Foreword

In an increasingly complex global future, the "Hemamala Upahara" book project, led by Mahamaya Girls' College, stands as a turning point in girls' education. Over a decade, it has successfully nurtured thousands of children to become young authors.

This year, by collaborating with other schools, we aimed to provide students with a wealth of new experiences. The goal was to develop multi-faceted skills, including communication, values, and creative growth. As a result, children have written books that pay tribute to Princess Hemamala, who brought the Sacred Tooth Relic—the supreme symbol of the Buddhist world—to the Hill Country (Kandy).

I extend my gratitude to everyone involved, including the students who contributed their creativity and the teachers who guided them.

Congratulatory Message

It is a great honor for me, as the Governor of the Central Province, to send a congratulatory message for the launch of the books created through the Hemamala Tribute Book Creation Project initiated by Mahamaya Girls' College, Kandy.

Education is the fundamental foundation for the progress of society, and it is further strengthened through books and literary creations. It is clearly commendable that students' talents, creativity, and intellectual abilities are emerging through projects such as this.

I believe that this book creation project will provide valuable knowledge and a precious literary contribution not only to the students but to the entire society. Furthermore, I hope that through such efforts, future writers who will bring pride to Sri Lanka will emerge.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation and blessings to the Principal, the academic staff, the students, and everyone involved who dedicated themselves to this successful endeavor. I wish this project and the book launch ceremony great success.

Congratulatory Message

I highly appreciate the noble and outstanding effort of the Principal and the academic staff of Mahamaya Girls' College, Kandy, the student daughters, the students of other participating schools, and everyone who dedicated themselves to plan and implement this book publication project. The project was organized under the leadership of Mahamaya Girls' College, Kandy, with the participation of other schools in the Kandy Zone, with the aim of encouraging children toward book creation within the current school system, as a tribute to Hemamala Kumariya who brought the Sacred Tooth Relic to Sri Lanka.

For several decades, Sri Lanka has been committed to providing free, compulsory, quality, and equitable education to all children, thereby producing a future generation of intelligent and skilled citizens. In such a context, this book creation program for school children helps develop creative ability, critical thinking, and other positive qualities for a balanced and well-rounded personality, and contributes to building a future knowledge-based society.

May all activities of the Hemamala Tribute Book Creation Project be successful through the blessings of the Sacred Tooth Relic.

Once upon a time there lived four girls named Ava, Lyra, Ohana and Aria. Each of them possessed a special magical power.

Ava could control nature, Lyra could control the wind, Ohana could control water and Aria could control fire. The four girls were the best of friends and lived near a peaceful village.

One Sunny morning, a frightening news Spread throughout the village. A wicked witch was coming to Steal the kind souls of the villagers. Everyone was terrified and did not know what to do. The four girls knew they had to help.

Curious to learn more, the girls went to village library. They searched through dusty old books and ancient scrolls for nearly an hour. Suddenly Ava cried out, "Girls, come here! I found something!"

The girls gathered around Ava. "Look !" She said. " The witch's name is Babayaga. Long ago, She was a kind and gentle woman. But people mocked her and called her ugly. Hurt and angry, she turned to dark magic. "

"We have to Stop her " Ava said bravely.

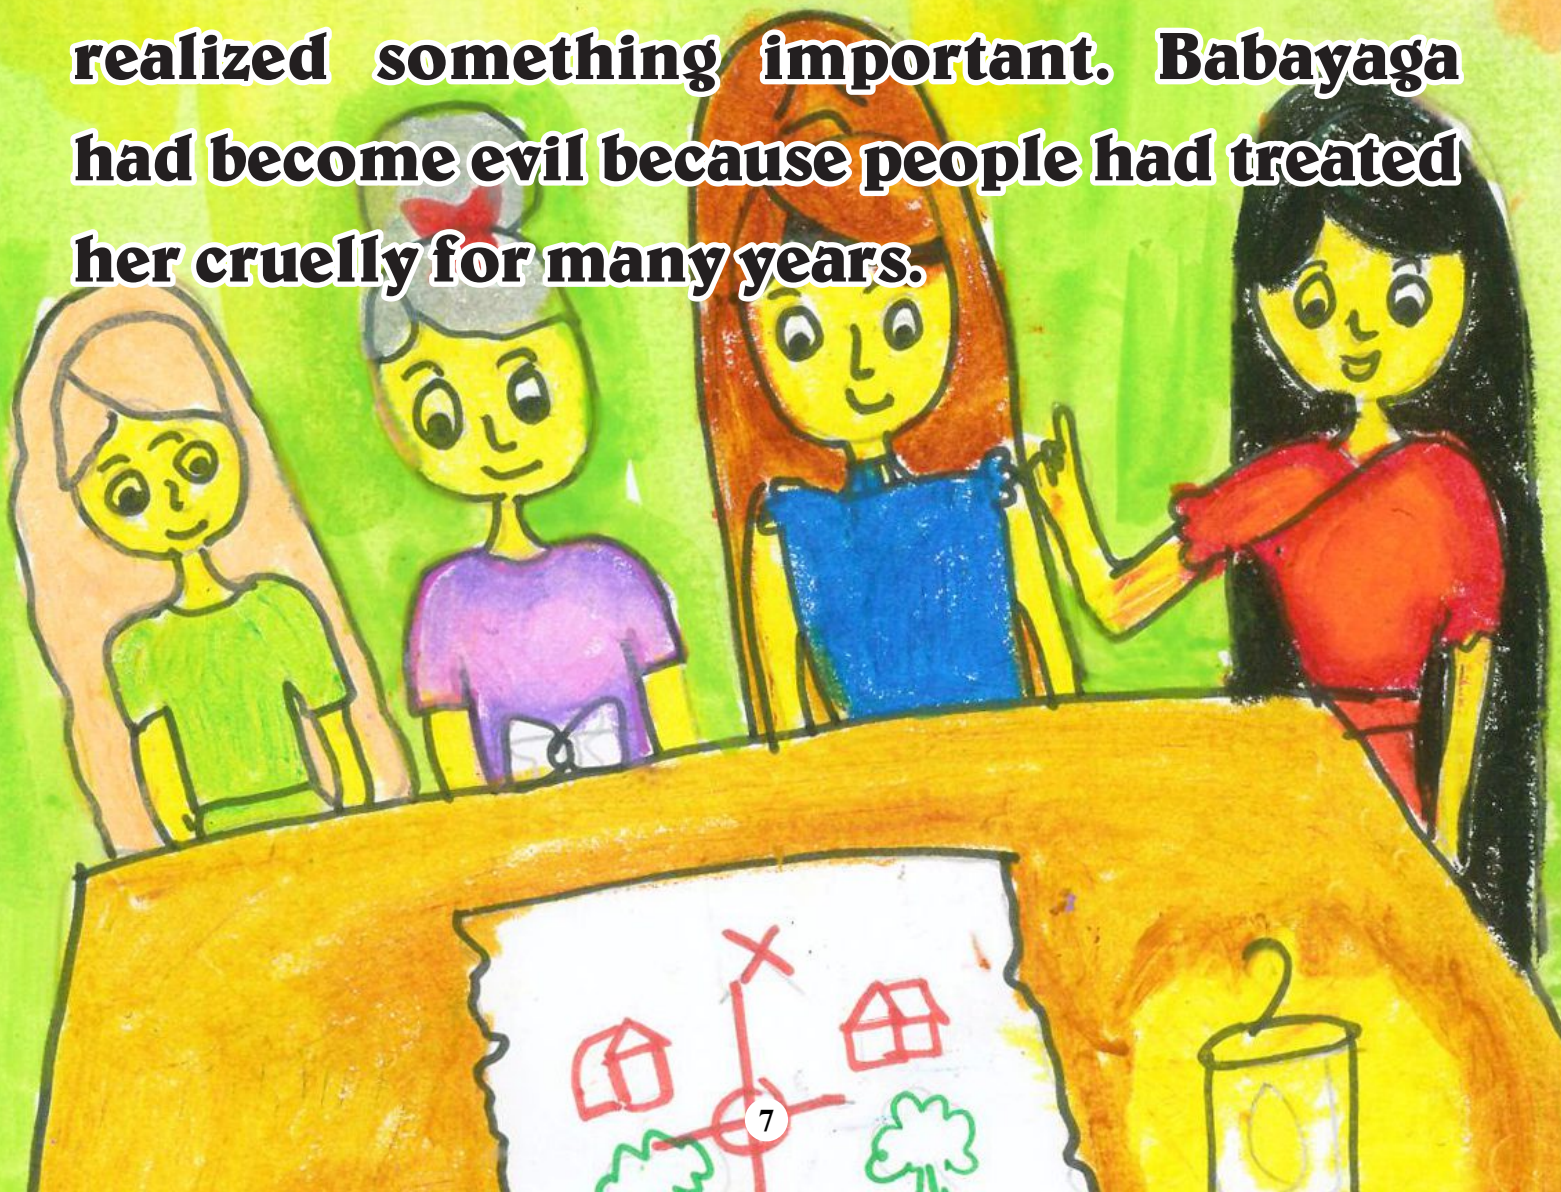

Aria came up with a plan. "Let's find out exactly when the witch arrives and set a trap for her," She suggested. That night the girls waited quietly for Babayaga. When she appeared, they attacked using their magical powers.

Ava Summoned vines and trees. Lyra Created powerful winds. Ohana Sent rushing waves of water. Aria unleashed bright flames of fire. But Babayaga was much Stronger than they expected.

The girls were defeated and returned home covered in bruises and Scratches. As they rested, they thought deeply about everything they had learned. Then they realized something important. Babayaga had become evil because people had treated her cruelly for many years.

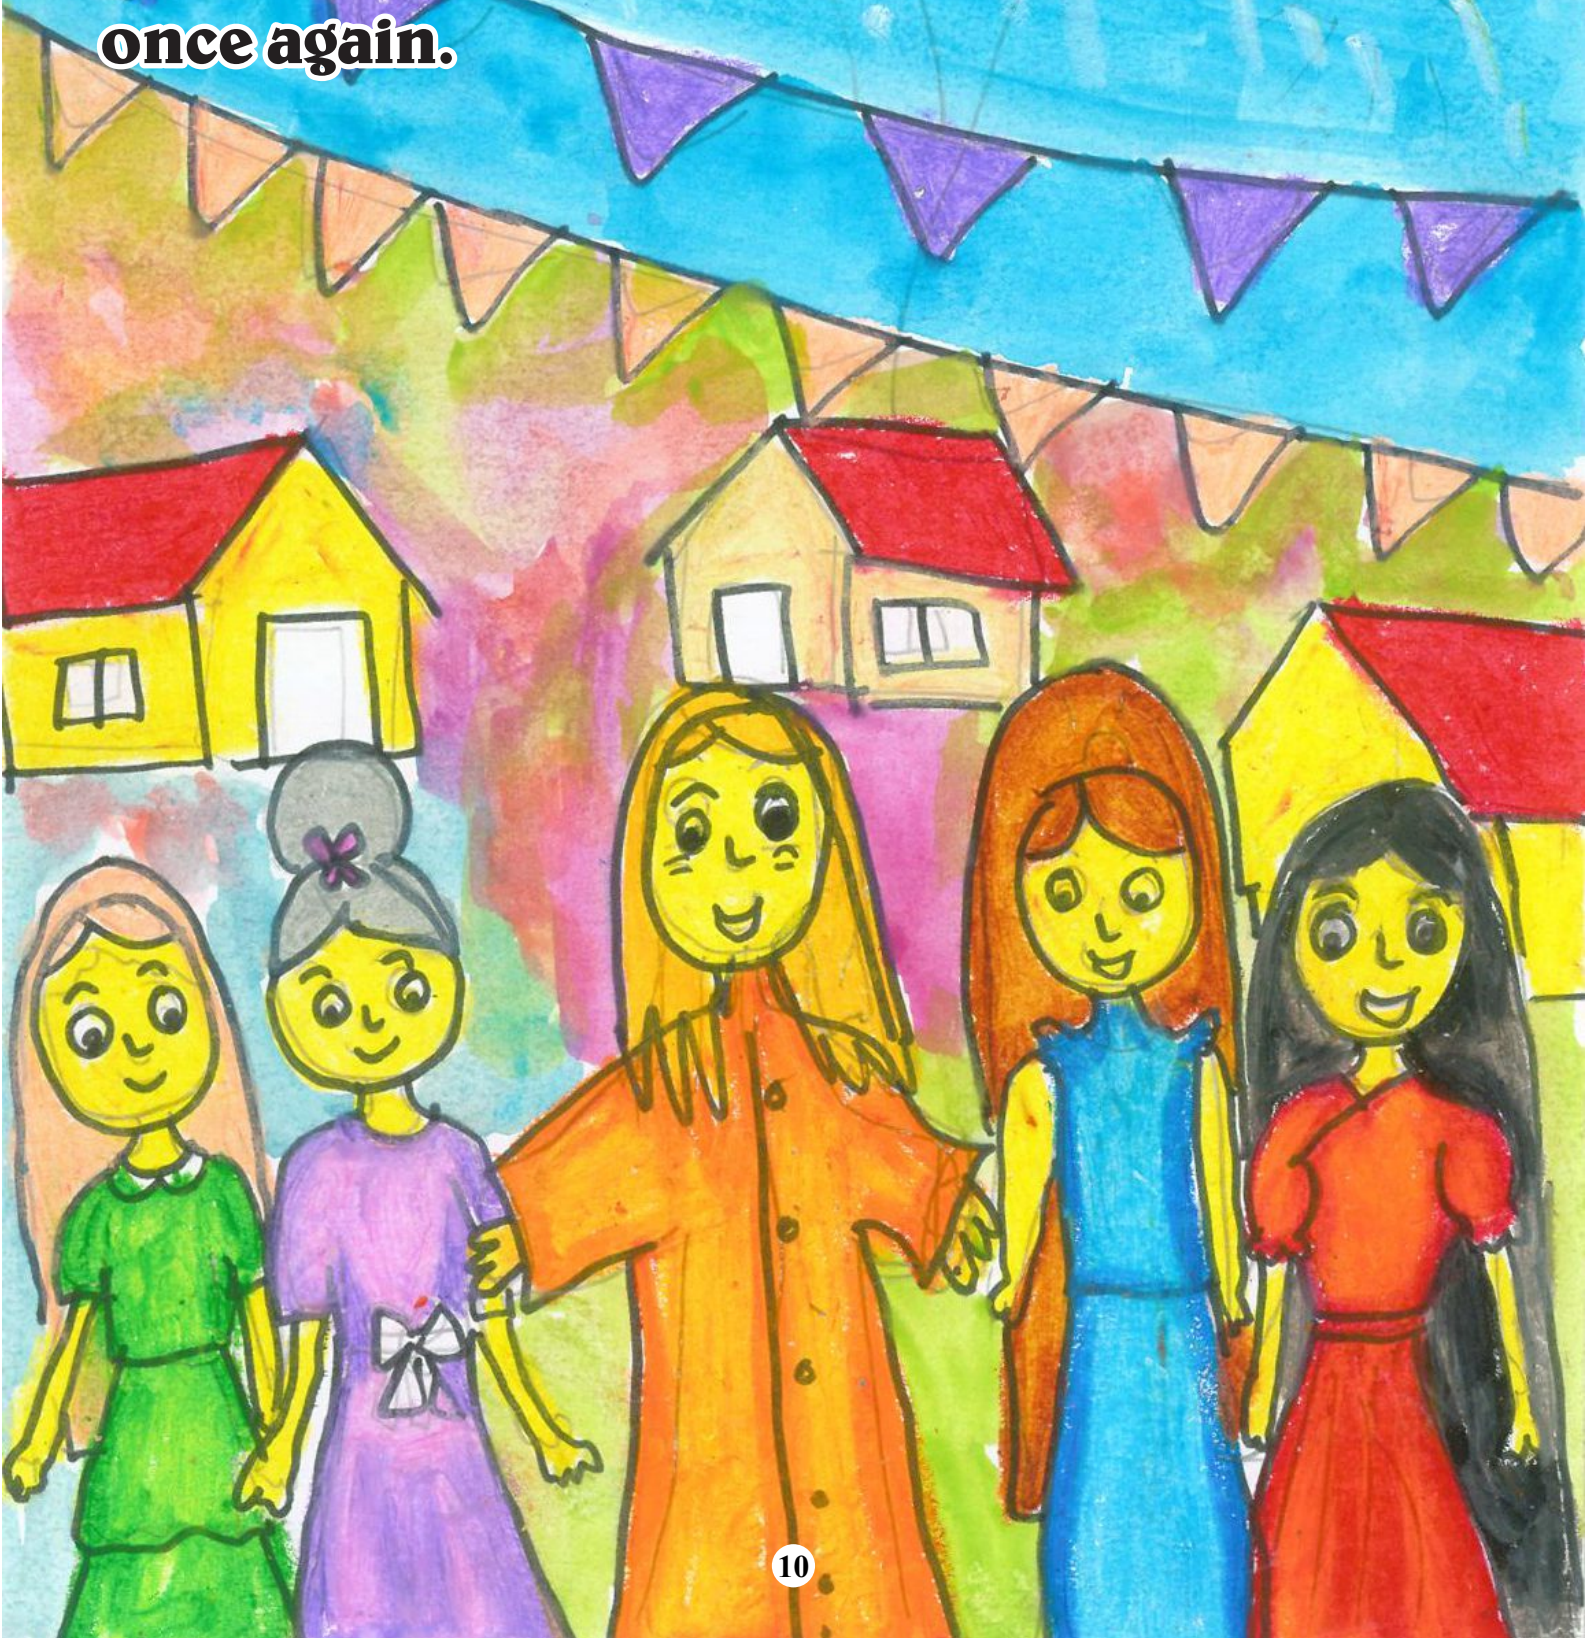

The next morning the girls gathered all the villagers together. They explained Babayaga's sad Story. The villagers felt ashamed of the way they had treated her. They decided to apologize.

When the villagers apologized Sincerely, Babayaga's anger Slowly faded away. For the first time in many years, She felt accepted and understood. She decided to stop using dark magic and become Kind once again.

The magical girls became heroes throughout the village. People called them the Four Queens of the village because of their bravery, wisdom and Kindness.

From that day onward, the village lived in peace.

The four girls and Babayaga became friends, proving that Kindness and understanding can heal even the deepest wounds.

And they all lived happily ever after.

Afterword

With the approval of the Ministry of Education, this research-based project has empowered thousands of student authors for over ten years. Educationists recognize it as a program that significantly enhances the quality of school education.

In alignment with modern educational reforms, encouraging students to author a research work is a milestone in this journey. In this digital age of "Smart" technology, the modern school must demonstrate through research that books and technology should be used together. This is because the unique joy a child receives from a book cannot be replaced by anything else.

To prevent children from drifting away from books—which remain our primary educational tool and storehouse of human knowledge—Mahamaya Girls' College has spearheaded the "Hemamala Upahara" project for many years. Its primary objectives are to foster academic discipline, promote values, and pay tribute to Princess Hemamala, who fulfilled a historic mission to empower women.

We express our gratitude to the Principal, teachers, parents, alumni of Mahamaya Girls' College, representatives of other schools, the Diyawadana Nilame, and the staff of the Sri Dalada Maligawa (Temple of the Sacred Tooth Relic) for their support.
